

Info
that's good to know.

Date: Friday, April 16, 2010

Time: 6:30 to 10:30 pm; Doors open at 6 pm

Place: Hatboro-Horsham High School Theater

Participants:

Five (5) bands, each with at least one member being from HHS, will compete for studio recording time, along with other prizes TBA. Two to three other bands, made up of HH Alumni, will perform at various times during the event. The alumni bands will not be competing for prizes and are the guests of the HHEF. All participants are permitted to sell their merchandise in the lobby before, during, and after the show. The HHEF asks that a $1-per-sale donation to HHEF be considered. Please consult the BOTB Registration Form for more details about the bands' participation and competition.

Tickets:

Tickets will be available for sale beginning Wednesday, March 10, 2010. They can be purchased using a credit card or Pay Pal on our website: hhef.org; at the Main Office at Hatboro-Horsham High School (check made out to HHEF or cash); or at the door on the day of the event (check made out to HHEF or cash).

Prizes:

Only student groups will be competing for prizes. The grand prize will be recording time at a reputable studio. Other prizes will be determined as we continue our marketing efforts.

Available to all who attend:

In the lobby, guests can take chances on raffle baskets that will mostly have a musical theme. Other items will be available for sale, including merchandise from participating bands. Refreshments will be on sale in the cafeteria. No food or drink will be permitted in the auditorium.

Questions or more information:

Please contact either Kim Rubenstein at 215-542-3822, kim@rubensteins.net; or Jon Viscounte at 215-920-0949, jon@viscountefinancial.com.